

1st Grade Summer Reading Socratic Discussion Questions

Who are the characters in the story?

How are they alike and different?

What is the setting?

Does the setting in the story change?

How does the setting change?

What did Peter Rabbit do in the beginning of the story?

What is his problem?

Does he solve his problem at the end? Why or why not?

What lessons can we learn from this story?

Students should be able to answer the above questions upon completion of summer reading. This will prepare them for the socratic discussions that will take place in class during the fall.*